For a synodal Church
communion | participation | mission

Together, listening to the Holy Spirit, let us be led by God

To listen to one another,
to listen to the Holy Spirit,
in a spirit of prayer.

A shared experience,
an ongoing process
to discern together for the good of all.

Communion

The Church is Catholic because she is sent to all, to gather the entire human family from every nation and culture, under the Lordship of Christ and in the unity of His Spirit.

Participation

All the faithful are qualified and called to serve each other through the gifts they have received from the Holy Spirit.

Mission

Each one of the baptised is honoured as a child of God and appointed to the mission to proclaim the Good News and to Prepare for the Synod

Please include the Synod Prayer in your daily routine.

Questions to consider:

A synodal Church, in announcing the Gospel, “journeys together.” How is this “journeying together” happening today in our Parish?

What steps does the Spirit invite us to take in order to grow in our “journeying together”?

Synod Prayer

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.
